Theologians have typically recognized three but sometimes four main titles for Jesus of Nazareth: Jesus Christ, The Word of God, the Son of God, and the Wisdom of God.

John 17:12a: While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me.

“[Christ] himself is at the same time the priest and the sacrifice, the shepherd and the pasture, the doctor and the doctrine, the advocate and the judge, the reward and the distributor, the guide and the road; the physician, the medicine, riches, light, protection, and the consolation, He Himself, and He alone. In Him we have joy in sadness, discernment in doubt; in danger and desperation we find protection and health.” (The Names of Christ; Luis de Leon; 107)

“As Christ is a source or rather is an ocean which holds in itself all that is sweet and meaningful that belongs to man, in the same way the study of his person, the revelation of the treasure, is the most meaningful and dearest of all knowledge ... and the goal at which all the actions and thoughts of the Christian aim.” (Ibid., 39)

God, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” made his light shine in our hearts to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. (2 Cor 4:6)

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For by him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things were created by him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross. For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form, and you have been given fullness in Christ, who is the head over every power and authority. (Col 1:15–20; 2:9-10)

The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven. (Heb 1:3)

This list's origin has been long forgotten; however, I have also significantly edited it over the last 30 years.
